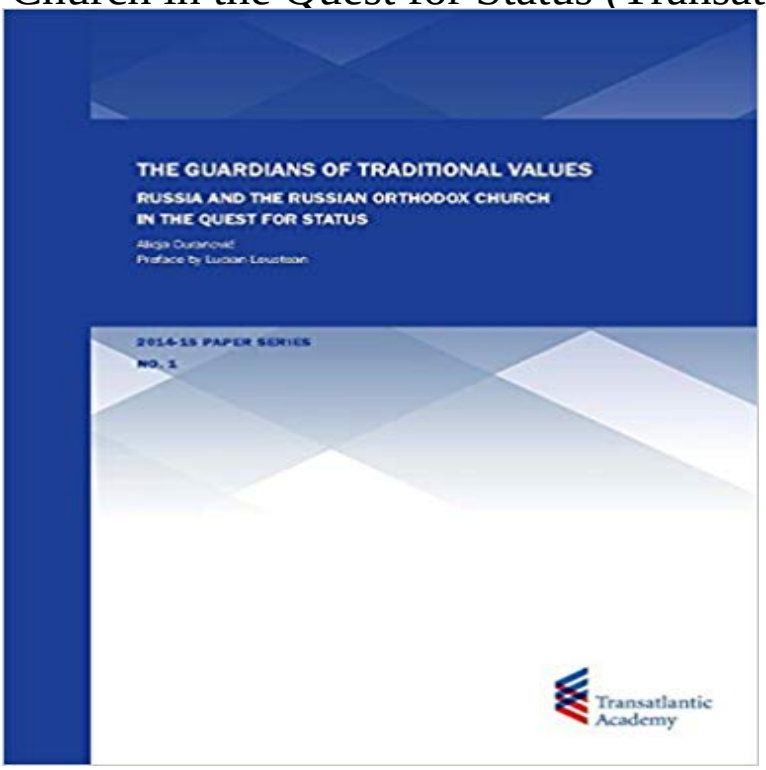
The Guardians of Traditional Values: Russia and the Russian Orthodox Church in the Quest for Status (Transatlantic Academy)



This paper starts with the presentation of a general framework of the rapprochement of Church and state in Russia. This is followed by the characterization of the public narrative on traditional values and examples of the rhetoric of traditional values in Russias foreign policy. It concludes with a possible interpretation of Russias traditionalist shift and some thoughts on the issue of whether Russian society is likely to fully embrace the retraditionalization encouraged by the authorities.
