

Sister Helen Prejean: The Spiritual Journey of Sister Helen

Sister Helen: The Spiritual Journey of Sister Helen Prejean is the story of Sister Helen Prejean, the Catholic nun whose 1993 book Dead Man Walking transformed our understanding of the death penalty and ignited a global movement to abolish it. Until Sister Helen completes her own long-awaited memoir, this profile of the Death Row nun is her only published biography. Focused on the dramatic spiritual transformation that lies at the heart of her story, it traces her evolution from a conventional Catholic nun to her present role as an electrifying public voice for the condemned, the people, in Sister Helen's words, that we most want to throw away. Sister Helen was originally published as Sister Helen Prejean in Enduring Lives: Portraits of Women of Faith in Action, Orbis Books, 2012.
