

Prospectus of the Allied World War Veterans: Containing Constitution and by-Laws and Outline of General Purposes (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Prospectus of the Allied World War Veterans: Containing Constitution and by-Laws and Outline of General Purposes

Early in the Summer of 1918, on one of the Motion Picture lots in the City of Los Angeles, five Veterans of the Great World War sat on a bench waiting for something to turn up in the shape of a job. Each one of these men had an interesting story of his own, a story that only those who have gone down to Hell can tell. Each one had done his bit, had been Over there with one or the other of the Allied forces. One had been gassed, had lain in the Base for months, and finally the medico said Physically unfit for further service, and Scotty was sent home, a mere shell of the big, robust boy who had two years previous left his mothers fireside and gone down to Hell to help wipe out the Hun. Scotties voice was nearly gone, medico said that he hadnt enough lung left, and now he had come to California to try to recuperate, and regain what the Huns caused him to lose. Another had a bum hip, shot away with shrapnel, no chance to ever get it back, and now he will walk with a bad limp the rest of his life. Another had a peculiar stutter in his voice, and his arms and hands twitched all the time - shell shock - standing too near an ammunition dump when a big Bertha landed in the midst of it. He awoke about 20 days later in a hospital ship on the way to blighty. Another had a bad scar right near the heart - Hun bayonet got him, left for dead in No Mans Land, crawled back after dark. Blighty, said Pills, and the War was over for him. The other had stopped the butt end of a Fritzie rifle with his head in a hand to hand melee out there. Suddenly Scotty was pinned with a brilliant idea. Lets organize a little society and call ourselves the Fragments from France. Great, said the others, Great idea.
