

Donna Koolers Encyclopedia of Knitting (Leisure Arts #15914) (Donna Koolers Series)

Leisure Arts Donna Koolers Encyclopedia of Knitting Definitely not your grandmothers knitting book. Thanks to Hollywoods newfound obsession and updated, stylish designs, a whole new generation has caught on to the art of knitting. For those just starting out or veteran knitters, expert Donna Koolers newest, Encyclopedia of Knitting, will get those needles clicking. This comprehensive guide covers all the basics, from the history of knitting, tools, and materials, to how-to instructions for 164 stitches and stitch patterns, with tons of photos and diagrams to show the way. Includes instructions for both right-handed and left-handed knitters, with narrative directions and symbols to make learning easier. Contemporary projects by todays top knitting designers are suitable for a variety of experience levels and include a mans vest, a babys dress, and decorative pillows. If the runaway success of her two previous Encyclopedia* volumes is any indication (and we certainly think so!), this one has bestseller written all over it.
