

Promise of Deliverance (Pendle Hill Pamphlets Book 60)

This, then, is the Promise of Deliverance. All who recognize the need can become as new men, reborn from within, strengthened by membership in a blessed community, filled with the Presence and Power of God. We can begin at once to help create the Kingdom to translate love into political and social relations. We do not have to commence our training all over again, or to expect new talents, or to go to a new place to begin, or to wait for a more opportune time. We do not all have to be farmers, or in foreign service, or in the ministry to serve God. We do not have to live in the city or out of it. We are to begin with what we already are, where we are. As we follow the Light each step of the way, new opportunities will open, new sacrifices will be asked, but as we respond, new power to live experimentally will be given. Always God is giving Himself without stint to help us accept our weaknesses, to overcome our doubts, to start over again and again. We may never be called upon to leave the normal paths of daily vocation or we may be led into daring new experiments in community living and world rehabilitation. Wherever we are, power equal to the measure of our need is available to enable us to follow as we are led.
