

How to be a Coaching Rockstar: Emma Holmes

Emma Holmes is the Coaches Coach and works with coaches globally who want to be more than ordinary and grow a ridiculously BIG business. If you have the fire in your belly to be much more than ordinary then this is your chance. She knows that you have the knowledge, passion and desire to help others to change their world and that you're super motivated to making a difference, but right now you might just be a little bit stuck! How are you going to deliver your message to the right people and access those people who you can help (like REALLY help)? Her no-nonsense, easy to implement and super efficient advice has resulted in her helping lots of coaches around the world to get out of their own way, get stuff done, make a difference AND make more money.

Emma is a former lawyer, mum of 2 lovely (most of the time) little people and wife of professional hero (ok, Firefighter, but hero does sound much more exciting). In September 2014 Emma decided that she had a mission to undertake and laid down the gauntlet to spend 2015 growing a 100k business. The Launch Queen was the brand platform for the mission. 12 months, 1 challenge, 1 result. The result? Building a 100k business, MISSION ACCOMPLISHED. Emma has a wealth of experience in launching online coaching products and programmes both for herself and VIP clients. Emma has worked on launches which have produced 18K in one day and launches of 54k+ in sales. Now is your time to make a difference to others, your business & your bank balance and step up to being a Coaching Rockstar!
