

Franklins Spy

It's been a year since Michael and his Mother were abducted by aliens from the planet Loam and returned to Earth. Since then, thirteen year old Michael has tapped into a genius that defies logic. Mysteriously, Michael is able to fluently speak languages once foreign to him. As a competitive swimmer, Michael shatters world records and gains international fame. This sudden celebrity status brings Michael to the attention of a powerful, covert branch of the C.I.A. An attempt to kidnap Michael's best friend, Trevor is made. For their own safety and in the interest of national security, Michael and Trevor are whisked away to the prestigious Franklin Academy prep school with a student body made up of a who's who of the global-elites children. It doesn't take long for Michael to discover the school is actually a hotbed of international intrigue and before he knows it, he's globetrotting between Europe and The Middle East where he finds himself smack-dab in the middle of a treacherous terrorist plot that threatens to destroy America. The universe needs a hero and this one is Michael Franklin's Spy.
