Excerpt from Friendly Fire Shootdown of Army Helicopters Over Northern Iraq: Hearing Before the Military Personnel Subcommittee of the Committee on National Security House of Representatives, One Hundred Fourth Congress, First Session, Hearing Held, August 2, 1995

The subcommittee met, pursuant to notice, at 10:05 a.m., in room 2118, Rayburn House Office Building, Hon. Robert K. Doman (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding.

Opening Statement Of Hon. Robert K. Dornan, A Representative From California, Chairman, Military Personnel Subcommittee

Mr. Dornan. The Military Personnel Subcommittee of the National Security Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives will come to order. A few explanations at the beginning for our witnesses and all other interested parties: The House will adjourn tomorrow afternoon for a district work period of about 5? weeks. The House of Representatives has built up a tremendous workload on our appropriations bills that we are passing over every hour to the U.S. Senate. They will not adjourn for another week. September will be a hyperactive month, as those of you know who follow the Congress of the United States, as we close on September 30 the end of the fiscal year. So we have much business in the House today. We will go past midnight again. But tomorrow there has been a family-friendly order that we will adjourn on or about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. I am telling you this to explain why there are not more members here. I have three regular members of the panel and Mr. Roemer who has a keen constituent interest in this tragedy and who is here as a guest. At least 10 other members, who are not regularly assigned to this subcommittee, have asked if they could sit on the panel with me and they will be coming in and out during the day. Mr. Skelton of Missouri has some other pressing business that is going to take him away periodically during the day. He will come and go, as all the members will. I am telling you this to assure you that the interest in this tragedy is intense in your Congress. As you can see by the news medias attention in the Rayburn hallway here, there is interest across the country.
