

Heavens Not So Far Away: Finding Peace in the Loss of a Loved One

Death is not an ending but the beginning of a new form of relationship, for life is eternal and no living thing ever truly dies, it changes form. This is the revelation of a truth and understanding about death that I came to know and experience, after losing my father at a young age as well as many other loved ones throughout my life. Although people may leave this world in their physical form, no one or no thing ever really dies, they simply change form and their energy lives eternally. When this is understood, the realization that a new relationship and form of communication is available between us can begin to unfold, if we allow it.
