

The Miraculous Infant Jesus Of Prague

In 1945 came the end of the Second World War. As soon as the gates of a concentration camp near Prague were flung open, a certain holy priest walked out that day from the place which he had never expected to leave alive. A deep gratitude filled his heart as he directed his steps immediately towards the Church of Our Lady of Victories. There he celebrated his first Mass in freedom beneath the statue of the Holy Infant of Prague, so much revered by his people. A few months later, this holy man was nominated and consecrated Archbishop of Prague, and a little later still his name was to become a household word throughout the world; for this was Archbishop Josef Beran, the prelate who has suffered so much in his struggle with the communists. Imprisoned by the Nazis from 1940 to 1945, Archbishop Beran was arrested and imprisoned by the Communist regime in Czechoslovakia from 1940 to 1963. He was exiled to Rome in 1965 and was made a Cardinal and died in 1969. The cause for his beatification has been introduced.
