Excerpt from Address of Companion Lt. Comdr James Parker, Formerly U. S. Navy: Before the Board of Officers of the New York Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the U. S.; In the Matter of the Investigation of Charge and Specifications Against Companion William S. Andrews, Captain U. S. Volunteers. In the investigation made by the so-called Lexow Committee of the Legislature of New York, during the latter part of 1894, much testimony was given reflecting on the integrity of Captain William S. Andrews, U. S. Volunteers, a Companion of the New York Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States. At the December meeting, 1894, of the Commandery, Companion Andrews called attention to this testimony; and asked that the Board of Officers should be instructed to investigate the charges that had been thus made against him, and he pledged himself to withdraw at once from the Order, should the Board, after such investigation, deem him guilty. At the February meeting of the Commandery, the Board reported that no investigation could be made because no charges had been preferred. Thereupon, Companion James Parker preferred a charge of conduct unbecoming a gentleman, and Companion, with Four Specifications. The First Specification in substance was, that, being a Companion of the Order, and at the same time a Commissioner of Excise of the City of New York, he had corruptly and in consideration of a payment to him of $500, voted to grant a license to a notorious place on Lafayette Avenue, New York, kept by one Louise Chaude, a house of bad character, known as Maison Tortoni. The Second Specification charged him with having falsely stated to the Board of Excise that Judge Andrew J. White had written a letter recommending the license of the Maison Tortoni to one Louis, a butcher. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
