

Tommy Goes Trick-Or-Treating (a Bird Brain Book)

Evolved Publishing brings you the fourth of the Bird Brain Books by Emlyn Chand, Tommy Goes Trick-or-Treating. This childrens picture book, with full color illustrations by artist Noelle Giffin, is for kids 3 to 6 years old. Tommy is a mischievous little woodpecker who loves to fly to the edge of the forest and watch the people in the nearby suburb. One evening, something strange and exciting happens--people emerge from their houses wearing costumes and carrying colorful buckets with smiling faces on them. Whats even crazier is that they shout a special codeword while standing outside of each house, and are given delicious-looking candy. Tommy simply must join in the fun. He and his friend, Michael the raccoon, fashion their own costumes and head off to join in the festivities. Thanks to Tommys knock-knocking beak and Michaels quick paws, the duo is able to heist many a candy bar from the unsuspecting homeowners and children. But are they missing out on the true spirit of Halloween? Theres only one way to find out: join Tommy and Michael in their trick-or-treating adventure, in this special holiday edition of the color-illustrated Bird Brain Books. More Bird Brain Books: Honey the Hero, Davey the Detective, Poppy the Proud, Courtney Saves Christmas, Vicky Finds a Valentine, Izzy the Inventor, Ricky the Runt, Larry the Lonely
