

Heartland

HEARTLAND was a one of five finalists out of nearly a thousand entries in the 2010 Young Adult Novel Discovery Contest sponsored by the Gotham Writers Workshop. Sixteen-year-old TOM ALLENs life is imploding. His father banished Tom from his life; Toms stepfather is entirely too interested in commenting on Toms behavior. What makes it worse is that his stepfathers comments are usually right on target. Then Toms beloved grandma suffers a stroke, which leaves his mother emotionally distant. Meanwhile his older sister is too sophisticated to worry about his concerns. When Tom reads an old family memoir from his grandmas cedar chest he becomes intrigued by his ancestors accounts of their struggle to form one unified family from two shattered families. They face man-made and natural dangers while they battle to survive smoldering conflicts in Bleeding Kansas that will soon erupt into the bloodiest war in American history the Civil War. With the help of family and friends, past and present, Tom gradually comes to terms with the pain and possibilities of his own family.
