

The Pennsylvania=german in the Civil War: Address Delivered at the Annual Meeting of the Society, Held at Norristown, Pa., November, 2, 1916 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Pennsylvania=german in the Civil War: Address Delivered at the Annual Meeting of the Society, Held at Norristown, Pa., November, 2, 1916It may not be inappropriate if I preface what I have to say on this particular subject with just a word or two on the line of the Secretarys remarks, and that is, that I feel that I could have done some very much better work for this Society had I been assigned a subject with which I was familiar, or in which I took interest. I know nothing about this subject. It is dull, hard grubbing to get information about it.I was born after the Civil War. I did not have the enthusiasm that is doubtless possessed by many of our members who were either old enough before it ended to know something about it, or who were boys and girls in the decade after it, and became permeated with the atmosphere, so to speak.About the PublisherForgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
