

Margaret Chase Smith: Model Public Servant (Great American Orators)

The selected speeches of Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine made throughout her 32 year career in the U.S. Congress are critically analyzed in this rhetorical study. The inquiry focuses on the factors of her political persona that garnered her the support of her constituents and the respect of her colleagues. The chapters are each titled with a segment of her political identity?an American, a Republican, and a women. Thus this work will be of interest to students and scholars of U.S. politics, communications, and womens studies. In addition, this popular political figure should be of interest to readers who want to learn more about the first female U.S. Senator.
