

Midnight Hour Encores

On the Road Sibilance T. Spooner thinks she's one of the world's most promising cellists. The world thinks so too. Given up by her mother on the day she was born, she believes she has almost raised herself--with just a bit of guidance from her unconventional father, Taxi. When Sib finally asks Taxi to take her to meet her mother for the first time, she knows it might mean breaking away from the man who has raised her. Finding your own path often means leaving those you love, and Sib is willing to take the risk. Yet as she and her dad wind their way across the country to San Francisco, Sib discovers she may not be as self-made as she thought. And as she learns more about the man she thought she knew, she finds out it's not simply her music that makes her special, but also the love from the parent she might have to leave behind. 1986 Best Books for Young Adults (ALA) 1987 Fanfare Honor List (The Horn Book) Best Books of 1986 (SLJ) Best of the 80s (BL) Young Adult Choices for 1988 (IRA) 1987 Teachers Choices (IRA) 1987 Books for the Teen Age (NY Public Library) Best of the 80s (English Journal)
