

Priceless Days - How To Survive This Economy: Help yourself and your community by sharing our excesses

In today's economy so many need help. By sharing our unneeded items and our time, we have the opportunity to help others with many of the necessary material items, such as clothing, housewares and bedding, plus a few treasures thrown in (such as toys, jewelry, decorations, etc.) - and show the love of Jesus in action. This booklet is a valuable resource on how to organize a free community garage sale where there are no fees, cover charges or payment of any kind.

It comes complete with pictures, samples of our poster, time schedules, press releases and more.... The hardest part of beginning a project is knowing what to do. This comprehensive manual leaves no doubt how to organize your event from start to finish. You will be able to follow our lead and conform it to your resources and limits.

With our free garage sale operation, there's no pricing items, no making change, and the shoppers get exactly what they want and need. Someone said, Your trash is my treasure - how true that is! Survive This Economy by recycling and everyone comes away happy.
