

Sharp Horns on the Moon

Home-schooled and far from the company of other children, Ivy Marie Bell lives on a remote part of an island off the coast of Florida. Hers is a lonely life until the day she finds a friend named Eleanor Money Penny--a girl who died at the turn-of-the-century. Their friendship, as real as any among the living, takes them into a shadow land to solve the mystery of Eleanor's death. What happens among the shadows when past and present collide makes for a ghost story of a highly unusual order.
