

Soris Harvest Moon Day: A Story of Korea - a Make Friends Around the World Storybook

Sori is excited about leaving the city and traveling to her grandmothers village for the celebration of the harvest moon. Every year the whole family gathers together for the ancient traditions, including dancing at Pung-Mul, the folk festival. Sori grandmother prepares delicious food for the holiday, with fruit and freshly harvested rice. Sori falls asleep on the way home, dreaming of her grandmother and waiting for next year. Book Features:- 32 pages - Full-color illustrations - Bonus facts about Korea - Hard cover: 11 1/4 x 9 1/4 inches
