

Spirits Speaking from the Heart: Inspiring Communications through Trance Mediumship

Spirits Speaking From The Heart is a book that bridges the divide between two worlds. It is about the communications from an evolved Spirit Guide, Hai, and his group of spirit friends. The material is stunning in the variety and depth of their subject matter, ranging from what we can expect when we return to our spirit home to current social and relationship issues. Here you will find spirit communications from a wide cross section of humanity: People who were rich and famous, but also those who led a simple and humble life. What comes over consistently in this book is the natural and human feel to the communications. While openly sharing their own experiences and profound reflections on the human condition, the spirit communicators do, nevertheless, show a profound sense of fun; they are always ready for a laugh and a joke. The Spirit Group chose the title for this book. They wished to convey their love and concern for those of us on the earth plane and to express the enjoyment they obtain through their contact with human kind. This is a book to inspire and to reflect upon. It is also a book of hope and encouragement.
