

The Commitment

This extraordinary true historical novel will provide you the details of the life of Jeshua (Jesus) and the Apostle Paul beyond anything that has ever been written before. The Commitment will take you on a journey back 2000 years ago where you will experience their lives firsthand. You will discover exactly what Jeshua and Paul looked like the clothes that they wore the food that they ate how they entertained themselves what were their goals and dreams and what were their motivations.

You will walk with them through the streets of Jerusalem. You will stroll with them through the market place and bazaar where they shopped and dined. You will laugh with them as they watched John the Baptist preaching and dunking his listeners in the waters of the Jordan River. You will see the sights along the Sea of Galilee through their eyes, as they saw them, and you will hear messages from Jeshua as he preached on the steps of the portico of the Great Temple, never seen in print before. You will learn how Jeshua and Paul dealt with the challenges in their lives and experience with them the decisions they made that impacted the lives of billions of people throughout history, and even today.

How is it possible that this exciting and true information could be found in a book 2000 years after the events took place? It began in the later part of the 20th century when a friend persuaded the author, Nick Bunick, to visit with a psychic. Nick was reluctant to do so, for he did not believe in psychics at that time. It was adverse to his background, but that experiences with the psychic, Duane Berry, was the beginning of an incredible journey for him. He told Nick there would come a time when he would be speaking in front of thousands of people in live audiences and millions on radio and television, which all eventually happened. He said it would have to do with the time he walked with the master 2000 years ago. After that same message was repeated by other seers, Nick reluctantly agreed to allow a professional hypnotist, Julia Ingram, to age regress him to a past life. Over a period of six months of taped sessions, he discovered he had access to the entire memory of the Apostle Paul. All of these experiences were captured in detail in the New York Times best seller, The Messengers, authored by Gary Hardin and Nick, which led him to indeed speak in front of thousands of people in live audiences and millions on radio and television., as the psychic, Duane Berry had told him he would. Miracles began to happen all around Nick. He discovered that every one of us have angels and spirit guides in our lives. He was given the gift of having access to the memory of Paul without having to go into hypnotic regression. He was also given the gift of being able to channel information in writing and being provided with information from the spirit world that was extraordinary that he otherwise would not have had. Lastly, spirit gave him the gift of claircognizance, in which they provided information into his conscious mind and memory not previously known by him. All of these factors above the accessing through his soul mind the memory of Paul... channeled writings from the spirit world. and spirit providing Nick information through claircognizance, created the words found in The Commitment. And that is why and how this extraordinary book will give you an understanding of the lives of Jeshua and Paul never known before. their aspirations and the knowledge of the events that influenced their decisions and the details of 2000 years ago that will change your life and provide you The True Story
