

The Hand In The Haunted Radio Station

Based on actual events, a new radio announcer confronts otherworldly occurrences in a radio station. Includes: Moving 600 miles to gain the job, only to leave after the emotional burden became too much A psychics refusal to enter rooms, saying theres death in there Legend of the floating hand and the man who refused to reveal his connection The houses rage when the one girl who truly loved it said goodbye forever Rumoured century-old suicide on premises Excerpts:

Sometimes you can feel the unordinary stepping into your life, opening the moment, drawing fear into your heart.

Anyone seeing my silhouette on the porch might have thought Id bent over in search of something. I had. I was searching for my sanity. Instead of concerning myself so much with the apparitions within the house, I focused more on the aspirations within my heart.
