

How To Make Yummy Yorkshire Parkin (Traditional Yorkshire Fayre Book 2)

A Sweet Treat From Gods Own County,,,In this second book in the Traditional Yorkshire Fayre series you will learn how to make Yummy Yorkshire Parkin. If youve never tried it you dont know what a treat you are missing out on!Traditionally in Yorkshire, Parkin is eaten on 5th November, known as Bonfire Night, Guy Fawkes Night, or Fireworks Night. It is however just as delicious any day of the year.The great thing about Yorkshire Parkin, apart from it fabulous flavour and texture, is that it is much better for being kept for 2-3 days, the flavour intensifies and the texture becomes stickier. If kept in an airtight container it will easily stay fresh for a couple of weeks. However, I challenge you to make it last that long! Its proper comfort food!
