

The torn veil between us and them: A personal supernatural journey through the eyes of a Christian

There is a veil between us here on this earthly plain and those on the other side. The veil was torn when Jesus died upon the cross over two thousand years ago and rose again. Could this awesome act of selfless love from our Savior be the reason that supernatural occurrences have been happening for centuries? The torn veil is about this authors personal experiences with the supernatural and her interpretations on why they took place. From a young child hearing voices in the night to near death experiences as angels saved her very life. Out of body experiences that left a major impact on herself and her faith. A face of an angel looking down upon her as she grieved from a death of a child. Visitors to her home that werent invited but made their presence very known. There are many supernatural events that take place in this world by millions of people that can not be explained. This book is the events of the author as she welcomes you the reader into the world of her personal supernatural journey.
