

Achieving Excellence - The American Way

Outsourcing is taking jobs away from the United States and in the process is killing our manufacturing capability. Author Mike D'Angelo defines the disciplines required by our union leaders, corporate leaders and the American workforce to successfully compete with foreign companies and bring manufacturing work back into the United States. In Achieving Excellence - The American Way the author describes the culture change required and the new standards of performance necessary to achieve design and manufacturing excellence to compete globally.
