

Circle Nine

Abby doesn't remember what happened the night she woke up in soot-stained clothes, lying next to a burning building with an unfamiliar boy at her side. But her connection with Sam is immediate and intense. And she has no one else: no family, no home, not even a last name. She and Sam start a new life, just the two of them, and Abby is deliriously happy. Until memories from her past begin to haunt her—and suddenly everything she's learned to love turns sinister. It's only a matter of time before her reality cracks apart.
