Excerpt from War Rations for Pennsylvanians: The Story of the Operations of the Federal Food Administration in Pennsylvania; Including Personal and Biographical Sketches of Its Officers and Members, With Dramatic, Humorous and Unusual Episodes in the Experience of County Administrators During the WoThis volume is not intended to be a statistical record of the work of the Federal Food Administration in Pennsylvania; a record that necessarily would be replete with prosy facts, arid figures, and dull reports of no striking value from the human interest standpoint. While a complete roster of volunteer chiefs, directors and administrators is given not every county is represented in the narrative. It was not so intended originally. There are counties in which no incidents outside the commonplace occurred; in others no reports were filed, and personal requests for information failed to elicit a response. These are omitted. There also may be disappointment that the names of volunteer assistants who rendered splendid and patriotic service are not included. This was found to be impossible, not alone because it would have defeated the purpose of the work, but because a list of all Food Administration volunteers in Pennsylvania would make a respectably sized volume in itself.
