Written with atypical anecdotes to provoke the layman to view the Quran philosophy beyond dogmatic religious notions, how Karma permeates worldly actions is explained. Stop having vain desires. Gods dominance pertains to the universe of billions of galaxies of stars. Some communities are like a dozen golden fishes in a glass bowl so oblivious to the truth that nobody or nothing can be associated with God because our knowledge is but a dot in a book of 114 chapters You are asked to be distant from injustices to establish a way of life more akin to the Islamic genre. Its an alluring gift for Muslims and non-Muslims because in a brief two hours of reading the Quran guidance related to the prescribed way of life for mankind becomes clear. Any sincere person in the pursuit of the mystical Salam will be prompted to constantly be in focus of priority purpose and actions. Striking straight at the heart of mainstream Islamic thinking the author, in the business improvement industry vernacular expounds Why then is there deadly sectarian strives that has torn apart some communities in the Middle East? It is because present day self-declared Muslims ignore Gods vision for mankind (refer Q30:30-32) and choose an unjust way of life centering on cult beliefs and religious practices whereby each religious sect (shi-yaan) has its intent on extending its vain desires on others. Al-Kauthar [Q108] is described as the ever flowing stream of wisdom and knowledge. The commands of God should be followed, conveyed to others and you must sacrifice your comfort for the welfare of the community; those with opposing viewpoints will be cutting themselves off from the abundant good. As you devote yourself to serve God in sincerity under your circumstances and present station in life, you savor living out the expression Insha Allah in avoiding being transgressors and to distance from any evil tendencies.
